BOWEN ISLAND, BC, CANADA, June 6, 2010 /Stanford Who's Who/ -- Stanford Who's Who welcomes Christie Grace to the ranks of leading professionals due to her extraordinary effort work in the Arts. As Owner and Manager of Christie Grace Studio she has routinely demonstrated the passion, vision and dedication necessary to be among the best.

Christie is an incredibly talented individual who has earned her reputation as an entrepreneurial artist. Her exceptional talents include songwriting, singing, jewelry design and she is a sensational goldsmith as well. She has over 20 years of experience in music and jewelry.

Christie creates innovative, one of a kind jewelry pieces which have been showcased over the years in fine galleries throughout Canada, Southern California. She has traveled for over a decade throughout British Columbia and Alberta attending all the finer craft shows, including nine successful years at the West Coast's most prestigious Circle Craft Christmas Show at Pan Pacific.

In the musical arena, Christie has produced 2 CD's of original recordings which fall into the categories of pop, folk and smooth jazz. She provides soothing velvet vocals woven with sensuous jazz grooves, edged with a touch of Diana Krall and Paula Cole.

During her educational career, Christie graduated with honors from the Gemological Institute of America in Los Angeles and the Revere Academy in San Francisco. She also attended the Taos Institute of Arts in New Mexico and the New York Institute of Arts. Always seeking further education to improve her music and jewelry skills, Christie continues to take numerous courses.

Christie is a member of the Bowen Island Chamber of Commerce, the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada, Pacific Music Industry Association and the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences. In the time away from her busy schedule, she enjoys cooking, baking, gardening, reading, pilates and yoga.
